A Word From Our Wardens

St. Luke's, February 2016

The following article has been edited from the Wardens' Report submitted for the St. Luke's 96th Annual Parish Meeting, which was held on Jan. 28, 2018. – Eds.

Following the Rev. Dr. Joy A. Rose's resignation at the end of November, we find ourselves again in search of a new priest in charge to share our spiritual journey. This is a daunting task that we all have to share in and work together on. It's not going to be easy and it won't happen overnight. Prayer and patience. We have been in contact with the Bishop and Canon Jacobs and are awaiting further direction, but are taking things slowly.

We have arranged for [clergy] supply through the end of February and are working on March and April. We are so grateful to the Rev. Fletcher Harper for committing to Ash Wednesday, Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter.

Deacon Erik Soldwedel has confirmed that he will lead a Study Program on Wednesday evenings during Lent at the Rectory with our traditional Soup & Supper.

So things are moving right along. Continuity is key.

Your Wardens and Vestry are committed to keeping our spiritual and fellowship life as normal as we can during this transition. We are working hard to keep the day-to-day operations of the church going smoothly. But this can't be done without the cooperation of each of you to keep moving forward.

In closing, we want to thank each one of you for helping to make St. Luke's all that it can be, especially during this ongoing transitional period.

Faithfully,

Sue Gonci & Tammy Lynch

Spotlight on Stewardship

Overall our pledges for 2018 are up from 2017 by $4,005.00. This year we have 33 pledges totaling $97,290.00. Eleven increased, 14 stayed the same, five decreased, and there were two new and one renewed pledges.

—Tamera Lynch, Chairperson

Frank & The Finance Wizards

We would like to acknowledge the hard work of our Treasurer, Frank Brescia, in keeping our finances on track. Thanks to Frank, who continues to do an excellent job, and thanks as well to all those who assist every week with counting, recording and preparing for deposit all of the income received: Anne & Tom Caloz, Maureen Bownes, Bob Plinio, Linda Brescia, Helen Shaw, Jo Stephenson, Louise Myers and Tammy and Kay Lynch. Thanks to Sue Gonci and our bookkeeper, Joan Curto. And for the Trust and Endowment Funds, Trustees Frank Brescia, Norman Cardine and David Emerson, and secretary Junius Stephenson.

On Sunday, January 28, the 96th Annual Meeting of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Haworth was opened with a prayer by outgoing Senior Warden, Sue Gonci

In addition to enjoying the always-delicious potluck luncheon prepared by our St. Luke's chefs, parishioners were able to review and discuss the annual reports from the organizational heads.

The slate from the Nominating Committee, chaired by Jr. Warden Tammy Lynch, was presented and voted upon with the following results:

ELECTION RESULTS

Vestry Members (3-year term): Gladys Astorga, Robert Plinio

Convention Delegates 2018 (Annual Term):

congregation is required to ratify the Vestry's decision and the vote passed. The remainder was designated for outreach.

Our Stories: St. Luke's 96th Annual Parish Meeting

"Our stories are holy documents which have been printed on our souls. We need to rediscover these stories, play them back over and over to ourselves, tell those stories to each other in church. And then – and then, we need to take the risk to cross the river and learn how to tell those stories in the world. Stories about how our lives have been changed. Moments when God showed up. Stories of how ministry in the world is not just about doing good works, but is joining God in God's work.

"The world needs our witness. The world needs our stories."

Rt. Rev. Mark Beckwith, addressing the Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Newark on January 27, 2018. He will be crossing the "river of retirement" as Bishop in nine months.

Here are a few of our stories for February and the new year. First, Maureen Bownes gives an account of St. Luke's first important meeting of the year, and the report which tells our last year's story.

Saint Luke's Annual Meeting January 28, 2018

After the opening prayer and call to order, the Nominating Committee presented the slate for new wardens and vestry members. Sue Gonci, Heidi Plinio, and Greg Paller will be leaving. Rich Gonci will take over as warden, Bob Plinio will join the vestry in place of Heidi, and Gladys will take Greg Paller's place. Sue Gonci praised and thanked both the former and new Vestry members as well as Frank Brescia and Norman Cardine for staying on as Trustees of St. Luke's Trust and Endowment Funds.

The Treasurer's report showed a higher amount than projected, and the pledge payments did the same. There are several renovations needed in the rectory that will have to be addressed. Frank also thanked the counters who count, record, and prepare for deposit all the income received.

Steve Stevenson thanked Jack Klie for taking over the Acolyte duties that Steve has served dutifully for more years than I can remember. We are also pleased to have Amy Hernandez join our lay readers.

The report on Buildings gave a big shout-out to Heidi and Bob Plinio from Sue Gonci. There was definitely work to be done to make it more habitable and safe.

Many thanks to Rich Gonci for doing some repairs on the furnace and in the men's lavatory, as well as to Dave Emerson for painting it.

The report on grounds included the replacement of the bench near the shed and the addition of a new bench crafted by our own Dave Emerson and placed in front of the Rectory. Dave and Heidi were also nice enough to be our trimming angels! Bob fixed some potholes, and Dave painted some signs. We will have some professional signs by spring.

Heidi's Coins for Change has accumulated $1,370.70 for the general operating expenses of the church. Heidi also heads up our devoted Card Angels, who continue to send cards to parishioners for birthday, anniversary, and get well. (Thanks, Bob, for taking care of the postage.)

Of course, this newsletter will not be as wonderful as it would be if one half of the Dynamic Duo were not presently occupied with getting well. This is what I leave for all of you, but particularly for you, Claudia.

— Maureen Bownes

You guessed it. Clearly, this is everybody's favorite part of any meeting at St. Luke's: the food! Perhaps we should be more specific and say, THE DESSERTS! Indeed, St. Luke's has a band of awesome bakers who ply the congregation with sweet treats for every occasion, from casual Coffee & Fellowship Hours following Sunday services to important occasions like the Annual Meeting or our Interfaith Thanksgiving Service. Come & sample the sweets and the fun that goes along with them!

Do not look forward to what may happen tomorrow: The same everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you tomorrow and every day. Either He will shield you from suffering, or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace then — put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations, and say continually: "The Lord is my strength and my shield; My heart has trusted in Him and I am helped. He is not only with me but in me and I in Him."

— Saint Frances de Sales.

Thank You, St. Luke's Family

Thanks, Maureen. I have never had surgery in my life — at least nothing major like this one at the end of January. I did not have a whole lot of expectations about what recovery would entail because everyone is different. All I know is, I went into the operation girded up in the prayers of my St. Luke's Family and others in my life, both near and far away. Clearly,

PRAYER IS REAL. And, as I recuperate, I figured might as well do something I love. February New Visions, here we go ...

—Claudia Smith

From July 2016, Singapore arrival — something to compare the photos we'll see when Chris and Karen get back from their adventure (sorry for raiding your Facebook, page Paul!)

An Exciting Visit to a Special Family

In February Chris Emerizy and Karen Moylan will be visiting our much-missed Kaller family in Singapore. We look forward to hearing their stories and more of the Kaller stories when they return.

In anticipation, here is a Facebook message from Paul that Chris shared: "We are excited to have you both visiting next month. Please bring a piece of St. Luke's with you... You have no idea how much I miss everyone in St. Luke's. From time to time I speak to Louise about everyone in church and how much we miss everyone's love, warmth and cheerfulness.

"We have not forgotten anyone. Feels like being torn away from family. Just today afternoon we were discussing the places to bring you both to. Not forgetting food. Singapore is a food paradise. You'll see. It can be a little humid here so you'd wanna pack your t-shirts, short pants, track shoes – your summer clothing."

And don't forget to say hi to the Big Boy, Mr. Leroy Brown!

A Grace-filled Experience

Roberta Nobleman has just returned from a trip to Dominica, a very poor Caribbean island sandwiched between Guadeloupe and Martinique. She was visiting friends she made there 20 years ago when she sponsored a 10-year-old girl, Ressa, through the Christian Children's Fund and formed a loving, deep relationship with the whole family.

Last February one of Ressa's three brothers, Dwight, aged 32, was drowned in the Atlantic Ocean, fishing for food. Then Hurricane Maria struck. The damage to this beautiful, volcanic place was as devastating as it was in Puerto Rico, although little known here. Read Roberta's account of her trip:

"I knew I had to see my friends and condole with them. So, I went there the week of January 10th, staying first with a family I know in St Lucia, then taking the ferry via Martinique to Dominica. It was a devastating visit. Most houses are demolished; on others no roofs except for blue tarps, labeled "UNICEF"; no electricity; not much water and garbage everywhere. Those that could afford it have gone to other islands, or Canada.

"The village of Wesley, overlooking the Atlantic Ocean (where Dwight still lies) is hardly affording shelter to anyone. I stood with my friend Claire, Ressa's mother, in the ruins of Ebenezer Methodist Church and the cemetery where her mother lies and we sang 'Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing'; it was the most grace-filled experience.

Outreach: A Look Back and A Look Ahead

Annual Meeting Outreach Report

St. Luke's outreach efforts are out of proportion to its size and our beloved church has again provided much active and financial support to local organizations that provide food, encouragement and hope to the needy, young and old in our community. In particular we have supported the Center for Food Action (CFA), Englewood, Family Promise of Bergen County, Ridgewood, and Youth Consultation Services (YCS), Hackensack.

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to eat."
— Matthew 25.

St. Luke's follows faithfully Jesus's injunction to His disciples in its consistent support of Center for Food Action (CFA) which does far more than help provide food to the hungry; it also provides housing and heating assistance, as well as counseling and advocacy services.

Every second Sunday of the month the supermarket cart is full to overflowing with nutritious food provided by our generous, caring congregation. We have given additional support to the most vulnerable, the children, by participating in CFA's Weekend Snack Pack Program. CFA has specified the required contents of the packs and, with money from St. Luke's Outreach budget, we purchase these from a wholesale club.

Every month, with a few exceptions, we put together and box 50 packs which are taken to local schools by CFA to provide essential nourishment at weekends to children who are eligible for free school lunches during the week. CFA continues its help during the summer as does our involvement. Many in the congregation participate in the assembly line and sometimes we are helped by a local family who want their children to understand the importance of giving to the less fortunate. In the course of the year, we have also made monetary donations to CFA, through a portion of our Trust fund proceeds, a special collection for Thanksgiving dinner distribution, and, with Family Promise, a share of the collection at the Interfaith service.

We support two of Family Promise's programs: the Network and the Walk-in Dinner programs. The first offers temporary housing to homeless working families in our neighborhood. Families move each week to a different congregation where they are sheltered and provided with meals, returning in the morning to the Family Center in Ridgewood where they find showers, laundry facilities, computers and counseling. Our church space is not adequate to provide screened private areas for families but we do volunteer with other more spacious local congregations and this year, in August, we made dinner and breakfast and Linda Brescia and I stayed overnight, in the gym at St. Joseph's in Demarest, where we hosted 2 5 month-old babies, 2 moms and a dad. Under difficult circumstance, the good spirits of all were inspiring. Together with our friends from the Savior Lutheran church in Paramus we twice hosted the Walk in Dinner in Hackensack, in May and October. Offering roughly

There is an Anglican church in the capital, Roseau, but that, too, will be devastated. Direct help is what these brave people need: barrels of food, staples only like rice and powdered milk, money sent via Western Union, generators. 150 hungry adults a hearty, nutritious meal, when the food must be brought to the facilities warm and ready to eat, is always a challenge, but especially so this October when we ran out of the chicken dishes before all were served. Kay and Tammy saved the day by donating a cooked chicken they had in their car. Clearly, we must rethink our menu, as well as the portions we serve, but we were told that the number of "walk-ins" has been increasing, an indication of real need even in our wealthy Bergen County.

In 2018 we will again be serving two walk-in dinners, on Thursdays, May 24 and October 25. So, hold those dates to serve and, especially, to prepare a dish at home. We need more dishes! We also need suggestions as to good recipes for large numbers.

Every year members of St. Luke's become Secret Santa's to some disadvantaged children in the care of YCS (Youth Consultation Services). This year we committed to being Secret Santas to 12 teenagers, residents in one of their group homes. Twelve requests were not enough to meet the generous spirits of our congregation. Next Christmas we'll make sure more wishes are hanging from the Giving Tree!

YCS also does wonderful work throughout the year and they have been the recommended organization for some of our Trust Fund proceeds. Outreach is part and parcel of St. Luke's identity so thank you everyone!

A special thank you to Donna Sisti Louise Meyers and Maureen Bownes, who contribute so much of their time and talent to our efforts.

Having experienced the pleasure (and often relief) of sharing some outreach efforts with other congregations, my hope would be that in 2018 we could explore further possibilities of outreach sharing. Ideas anyone?

Respectfully submitted,

Janet Beddoe

Sadie Blue has been a wife for 15 days. That's long enough to know she should have never hitched herself to Roy Tupkin, even with the baby.

Sadie is desperate to make her own mark on the world, but in remote Appalachia, a ticket out of town is hard to come by, and hope often gets stomped out. When a stranger sweeps into Baines Creek and knocks things off kilter, Sadie finds herself with an unexpected lifeline...if she can just figure out how to use it.

This intimate insight into a fiercely proud, tenacious community unfolds through the voices of the forgotten folks of Baines Creek. With a colorful cast of characters that each contribute a new perspective, IF THE CREEK DON'T RISE is a debut novel bursting with heart, honesty, and homegrown grit.

St. Luke's symbol is the ox. This may explain that he is his also patron of butchers. In art, Luke is represented by a winged ox. The ox represents the sacrificial aspect of Jesus' ministry and the wings remind us that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is to travel throughout the world.
